★ The New Ranma Project ★

This entire book has an interesting history.

The first two chapters mark the first appearance of little Jessica Platon. By far our youngest translator, she's just 11 years old when she did these. Her volunteer letter was actually written in to me by her mother, letting me know how much she loved Ranma, and how much she'd like to help. I thought it would be a good learning experience for her, and I agreed. I think she did a great job for someone so young.

The whole middle section with Pink & Link was a mess though. It got passed over for almost the entire Project, and then only started as we were getting close to the end. On top of that, the first translator I had working on the first four parts of it had massive computer problems at the worst possible time, and Gary and Rajesh had to leap in and do four chapters literally over the course of a weekend to get them done by the day the were to be posted.

Part 8 in this book is the Evil Oni storyline that many of you will be familiar with from the Ranma OVA series. This chapter was our project's practice chapter. With only one exception, every single volunteer for the whole project did this chapter as their initial effort. I felt it was important for everyone to have a chapter that didn't count first, so they could see if they liked the task, and learn the ropes of doing it. Some time back I went through all the practice chapters and I assembled a composite using my favorite bits of all of them, which is the chapter that was finally posted.

The final three, the Kinnosuke storyline, was yet another that had its first translator fall through, and I had to find someone else. Lucky for me, the amazing DarkAsh picked it up. I gotta tell you, this guy has been amazing. He's our fourth most productive translator, but he didn't join until August. MONTHS after the top three guys. He's like a man obsessed, working sometimes 10 hours a day on our project, taking on anything and everything I could throw out him, and returning them finished in record time.

All in all, an eclectic book to say the least. ^_^

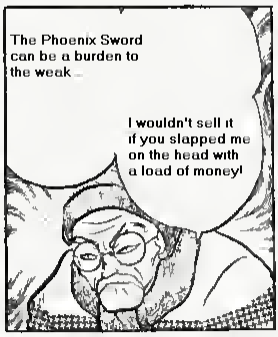
The phoenix sword

An egg?
What is it for?
It's a good-luck charm for martial artists
It's the egg of a Phoenix

The Phoenix is a very Beautiful bird
The legend says if a mortal who is a martial artist, gets both the egg and nest
That person will be able to learn the Technigue of the Dreadful Phoenix Sword

What!?The Dreadful Phoenix Sword?!

I'll take it!
Too bad



The Phoenix Sword can be a burden to the weak
I wouldn't sell it if you slapped me on the head with a load of money!

WHACK!
It's yours

I wonder what technigue
The Phoenix egg teaches
There is one small disclaimer
Whatever happens
NEVER PLACE IT ON YOUR HEAD!!!
Hmmph
What knave would place a delicate nest such as this on his head?
PERVERT— Take your hits like a man!!
COMING THROUGH!! OUTTA THE WAY!! COMING THROUGH!!

Huh?
SQUAWK!
A egg? A nest?
Give that back! Knave!Cretin!
BASH!
Hey Kuno!

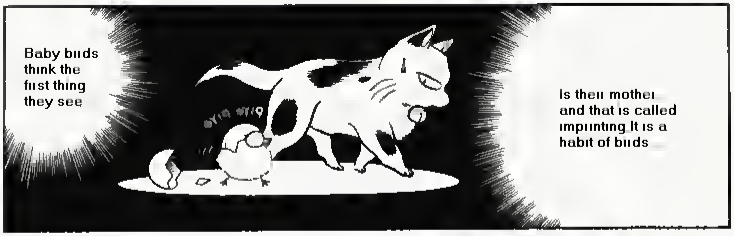
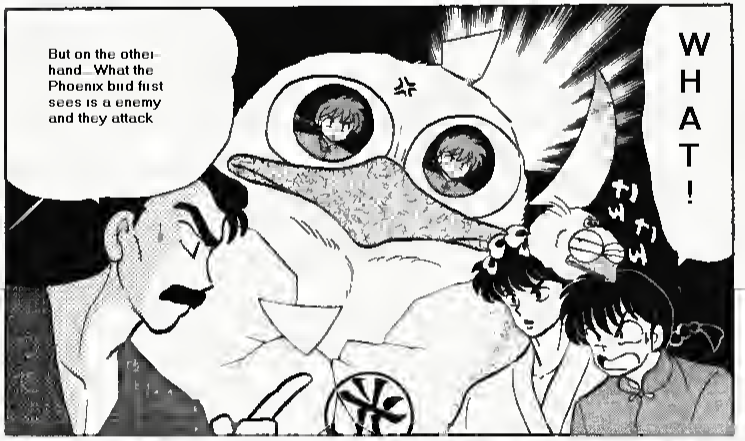
The Phoenix egg hatched?
This is extremely inconvenient
Hey! You're not the one gettin' pecked!
Peck!
Peck!
I've heard rumors...
...Of the Dreadful Phoenix Sword...
Peck!
Peck!
You...
You know about imprinting right?
You see... what the bird is doing...
What's 'imprinting'?
Shouldn't be confused with imprinting
What did you say?...

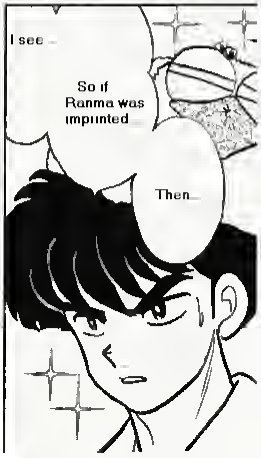


Baby birds think the first thing they see
Is their mother and that is called imprinting. It is a habit of birds



But on the other hand... What the Phoenix bird first sees is a enemy and they attack
WHAT!

Therefore, the technique of the Phoenix...
Is the birds continuous attack!



I see...
So if Ranma was imprinted...
Then...

I can finally date Akane!!
SQU-AWK!
SQU-AWK!
SQU-AWK!
What're you doin'?!
Kick!
Kick!
Kick!
Hey!
Cur!
If you wish to date with the beauteous Akane, you must best me in combat!

It can see through the disguise?!
Phoenix's always see the truth!
But now it's fighting harder!!
You're a girl?!
SQUAWK!
Uhh...
Uhh...
The bird is getting between me...
And Kuno...

It doesn't matter, Eipuriru
It was just a foolish dream
I think . . .
I understand.
Take this little bit of helpful advice from an old man.
Is that true? Eipuriru.
Yes!
What are you two talking about over there? I dislike being left out.
What's going on, Eipuriru?
Don't worry about it, just follow me

He loves me.
He loves me not.
He loves me.
What he said, is it true, Miss Nabiki?
Do you honestly have these feelings for me?
Now, do you understand my feelings? How I feel about you?
Ahh, why didn't I realize it sooner? How could I have been so blind.
You've never been the kind to catch on quickly.
